1. It doesn't matter where we live, or what color of skin we have, or who our parents are. All of us need to come to Jesus in _____ & ask Him to save us.
3. "Yes, Lord," the woman responded humbly, "yet even the little _____ under the table eat from the children's crumbs" (verse 28). She reasoned that pet _____ still received remainders of the unused food fallen from the masters' table.

9. "Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children's _____ & throw it to the little dogs," He said (Mark 7:27). Jesus was referring to the fact that the Jews considered themselves to be the only children of God.
11. [Thursday's lesson] Read Genesis 1:26, 27. _____ people in a shopping mall. Toward what kinds of people are you prejudiced & why?
12. [Monday's lesson] Read Mark 7:27-30. Explain in your own words what Jesus said that sounded unkind. Why do you think _____ said this? When have you misjudged someone?
2. The disciples were left with a lot to think about. Jesus tried many times to show His disciples that their _____ toward people from other countries was wrong.
3. But the woman was not _____. She knew that Jesus was her only hope. No one else could drive the demons away from her daughter.
4. Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed" (Matthew 15:22). The woman's voice rang out time after time as she called to Jesus for help.
5. Jesus was amazed by the woman's _____ faith. He had been testing her to see if she really believed in Him. Even though she'd had very few opportunities to learn about God, she still believed that Jesus could do what she asked.
6. He already knew that this mother needed His help. And He hoped to teach His disciples a lesson by the way He interacted with her. But at first He kept walking as if He didn't hear her.
